New Goods

Palais Royal.

During these "dull times" cheap goods sell readily, while fine goods are "slow." The makers of the latter having hoped against hope are now outbidding one another for an outlet like the $50c. 38-in. Serge. Palais Royal. Thus our Yonly 38c. Yd. "buyers" have lately visited the wholesale markets and secured choice of the best of the erstwhile expensive goods, which are now being distributed at the makers' loss-your gain Beautiful Irish Lawns. and ours.

Dress Goods.

5,000 yards of the arietocratic French Organdies sold this season at less than 374c secured to sell at a ridiculously low price—isc yd.

Best quality Figured India Silks at 49c instead of $1 yd., 5,000 yards here Saturday morning and not more than 2,000 yards remaining this morning.

The second quality India Silks, generally and justly advertised as a bargain at 68c yd., are now here at 39c yd.

The Black Brocaded China Silks at 50c instead of 75c yd. The 50c quality White and Black China Silks are only 39c yd—And other equally good bargains among the $15,000 worth of Silks secured to

This second floor is bristling with Dress Goods bargains. Even the staple, extra wide Storm Serges have been picked up at less than regular prices: 40c yd. for 68c. quality, 68c yd. for 51 quality. Cream as well as navy and black in the later lot.

Hand-Made Laces.

Fortunately it is the wealthy importer and not e patient workers who enables the offering of Fortunately it is the wealthy importer and not the patient workers who enables the offering of Hand Embroidered Point Margot Laces at 15c, 20c and 25c yd. instead of 59c, 75c and 81. The Insh-ionable evru shade, 5 to 9 inches wide. Point Bruge is a more superior fund-made lace, that only those with innate skill and long practice can produce. 40c to $2.25 yd. instead of 98c to $5-half prices and less.

Exquisite Embroideries.

Women who judge price by width and showiness will call these poor values. They are only 1 to 4 inches wide, 6c to 50c yd., which prices are exactly half. These are the choice Embedderies that, bontain more stitches to the inch than in a yard of the cheap and coarse patterns; these are the Embroideries that will outlast the garments they beautify; these the Embroideries that suffer with "duft times."

Important "Nothings."

Even "Notions" are down in prices. Wholesale quantities have been secured at quotations that will enable small dealers to purchase at the Palais Royal at less prices than will be asked by the 6c instead of 10c dozen for best quality covere bress Steels.

Royal Sewing Silk at half price—25c instead of Royal Sewing Silk at half price—25c instead of the per dozen spools.

100 gross of pure rubber and stockinet Dress Shields, in sizes 3, 4 and 5, worth 12c, 14c and 16c have been secured to sell at only 8c pair—and so prices run for a thousand-and-one other articles coming under the head of "Notions."

Summer Underwear.

When husband or father says "times are dull and you must do with so much less pin money" then you buy less elaborate underwear. The lending maker of fine undergarments has found this out and his loss brings you exquisite Underwear at prices of the inferior. 20c to $1.98 for garments made to retail from 50c to $12 apiece. If last night's announcement of this late purchase had not been located in an out-of-the-way corner of The Star we could not advertise these goods today. The laces and embroideries used as trimmings are worth more than the price asked for most of the garments. That this is "the bargain lot" of the many that have been advertised by the P. R. during the last twelve years is saying much, but it is the truth.

The above garments are on the third floor. The following new additions to stock on first floor, near 6 st, entrance:

instead of two for 50c.

50c has been the lowest price for imported Lisle Vests. We can now offer them at 35c or 3 for $1. White, ecru and black.

The Ribbed Vests usually sold as imported and at 35c are now here at 25c. White, pink, blue, lavender, canary, heliotrope, ecru.

15c for V and Square-neck Ribbed Vests that self at 18, 19 and 25c—depends where you shop. White, wink ecru, bigs.

In the lot are Superfine Gauze Lisle Hose, in black and russet shades, Richelieu-ribbed Hose in similar colors, Plain Ingrain-dyed Hose, Boot Patterns in ribbed and plain, Misses' and Children's Best Lisle Hose, plain and ribbed.

Ready=Made Suits

The history of these costumes is as follows:—
A manufacturer with more pride and sense of honor than practicability makes up garments of unusually fine materials spending hours instead of minutes in the finish. While immeasurably superior to the ordinary Ready-made Suits, dull times lower ptices to one level. The worthy manufacturer has to sell at a loss. We gain and you. Thus the finest

Table and Bed Linen.

Hotel proprietors, not less than the general public, will appreciate the qualities offered. The usual 50c Heavy Bleached All-linen Table Damask for 42c yard.....The quality some merchants judge worth $1, but never sold anywhere at less than 85c yard is now here at 69c. Napkins to match at 85c instead of $1 per dozen. The $1.35 quality for only $1.19 dozen.

The 20,000 Ready-made Sheets and Pillow Cases are going rapidly, 500 Sheets and 500 pairs of Pillow Cases sold this morning to a leading hotel proprietor. The Sheets are $1.350 inches, 49c instead of 50c each. The Pillow Cases are 22½x36 inches, 25c instead of 35c pair.

ETThe Towels lately secured are being as rapidly distributed:—The Turkish Bath Towels, 24x48 inches, are 25c quality for 21c; the 50c quality. 25x45 inches, are only 25c; the All-linen Extra fluck Towels, 1938s inches, are 13c instead of 19c. Hotel proprietors and others expect dozens at less prices. In this instance no reduction can be made,—only 150 dozen were secured and we cannot afford to disappoint smaller buyers.

ETThe writer has before him a list of Summer Housefurnishings, including Draperies. Furniture Covering, Window Shades, Refrigerators, etc. You must ask for these—and expect price surprises.

"Opening" Summer Millinery

Mr. Godfrey, many years with R. W. White & Co. of Boston, says: "I never bought to better advantage." The "trimmer," who lately was the head trimmer for Mde. — of 5th ave., New York, says: "I have taken every advantage of my trip to New York, and think I have reproduced the very latest imported styles."

It only remains for the writer to invite inspection of the collection that awaits you. While the prices are not low, we know them to be less than New York prices for finest Leghorns, Chips, Lace and Choicest Milan Hats.

N.B. Hats trimmed to order,—the ideas of patrons intelligently and artistically followed, or an effective style will be suggested to suit the complexion and contour of your face.
